New! Advanced Teaching Methods

Using advanced economics principles, Kim Holder will introduce new and exciting ways to teach economics to Gen-Z.

Teachers will learn how to use innovative technology in the classroom, taking advantage of social media, edutainment and even *selfies* to illustrate economic concepts and their real life applications.

This workshop equips teachers with interactive and technology focused tools to apply in their 21st century classroom.

Topics covered include:

economic freedom | poverty | free trade |
economic growth | GDP per capita | property rights |
government policies | inflation | institutions
