Teacher WORKSHOP

FRASER
INSTITUTE

Centre for Education Programs

ECONOMIC PRINCIPLES

With facilitators' emphasis on economics in the movies this fun and interactive workshop features recently revised materials and new activities. It is intended for any educators interested in bringing economics into the classroom. Teachers will be introduced to experiential learning techniques that can be used to teach students about topics such as incentives and property rights, supply and demand, economic systems, marginal utility, and voluntary trade. It will be especially valuable for those teaching business education, social studies, economics, and entrepreneurship.
